

ALL-HAZARDS DRY DECONTAMINATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This webinar provides an overview of hospital decontamination requirements and best practices, along with updates for all-hazards decontamination in a hospital setting. Ideal for healthcare professionals seeking to enhance their knowledge and skills in managing decontamination processes.

DATE AND TIME

May 5, 2026 at 1pm

Presented by

Corey Collings

Director of Training, Research,
& Development First Line Technology

Corey Collings has 19 years of experience in hazardous materials and emergency response, spanning military, law enforcement, and private sectors. He specializes in decontamination and mass casualty response, and currently leads training and development at First Line Technology.

COURSE OUTLINE

I. Introduction

Decontamination Basics
PRISM Overview

II. Hazards and Compliance

Common Threats
OSHA Regulations

III. Training and Certification

Available Programs
Certification Requirements

IV. Techniques and Applications

CRREL Methods
Skin and Particulate Decon
Radiological Protocols

V. Animal Decon & PETS Act 2006

Animal Rescue and Decon

VI. All-Hazards Strategy

Disaster Preparedness
Public Health Considerations

Course Objectives:

Foundational Knowledge: Understand decontamination basics and compliance.

Training and Certification: Identify available programs and certification paths.

Techniques and Applications: Learn CRREL methods and practical decon techniques.

Radiological and Animal Decon:

Grasp protocols for radiological hazards and animal decontamination.

All-Hazards Strategy:

Develop strategies for disaster scenarios, emphasizing public health aspects.

Click or Scan to Register

